

Ethical and Bias Analysis Worksheet

Product Description 1

Our latest product, the EcoCleanse Juicer, is undoubtedly the best juicer on the market. It's designed exclusively for those who understand the importance of health and are smart enough to invest in their well-being. Unlike other juicers, the EcoCleanse Juicer preserves 100% of the nutrients, ensuring that only the most intelligent consumers can maintain their health in today's polluted world. Our product is not just a juicer; it's a lifestyle choice for the educated elite who want to live longer and outshine the average person.

Bias and Ethical Concerns

Bias	Ethical Concerns
Implies only "smart," "intelligent," or "educated elite" people care about health.	Promotes elitism and social inequality.
Suggests superiority over "average" people.	Creates harmful messaging about intelligence, education, and worthiness.
Frames the product as exclusive to a certain class or level of intelligence.	Misleading health claims (e.g., "preserves 100% of nutrients").
Uses judgmental language about people's health choices.	Suggests moral superiority for buyers ("outshine the average person").

Product Description 2

The SmartSaver Financial App is the only sensible choice for anyone who truly values their hard-earned money. It's the preferred app among the wealthy and successful, as it's designed for those who are wise enough to seek prosperity. SmartSaver users are known to be more affluent and financially savvy than the average person, as they utilize exclusive features that lesser apps simply don't offer. Additionally, SmartSaver proudly uses advanced algorithms to predict and influence market trends, giving our users an unmatched advantage in the financial world.

Bias and Ethical Concerns

Bias	Ethical Concerns
Implies only “wealthy,” “successful,” or “affluent” people should use the app.	Exclusionary messaging that discourages access for broader audiences.
Uses judgmental language (“wise enough,” “lesser apps,” “only sensible choice”).	Suggests influencing market trends—implying potential market manipulation.
Frames financial ability as tied to intelligence or moral value.	Claims “unmatched advantage,” which may be misleading or legally problematic.
